

PRESS RELEASE
28th October 2005

WINTER WONDERLAND OPENING SPECTACULAR

Join us here at The Mall for a fabulous pyrotechnic and musical event to launch Santa's Winter Wonderland, on Thursday 10th November between 6pm - 7pm. The free festivities take place outside the main entrance of The Mall at the ice rink and Santa's Castle.

You'll enjoy a dramatic Fire and Ice display featuring some of the country's most talented ice dancers and fire performers in a 10 minute choreographed spectacular.

New punk-pop five-piece band Son of Dork, fronted by ex-Busted star James Bourne, will give a live performance, including their debut single Ticket Outta Loserville.

Singers from Bristol's Studio 7 organisation will perform their version of Sister Act with a solo by singer Nicole and of course, the real star of the show Father Christmas will make his dramatic appearance, abseiling down the front of The Mall to switch on the lights shortly before 7pm.

- 6.00pm Welcome by Bush and Troy and Paulina from GWR fm
- 6.05pm Fire & Ice Show
- 6.15pm Performance by Studio 7, with solo by Nicole
- 6.35pm Santa abseils down the front of The Mall
- 6.40pm Santa cuts the ribbon on his Castle, with 30 second pyrotechnics
- 6.42pm Performance by Son of Dork
- 6.50pm Countdown to Switching On of the Christmas Lights
- 7.00pm Performance by the Salvation Army Band

All timings are approximate and may be subject to change.

Son of Dork at HMV

At 7.30pm on Thursday 10th November, Son of Dork will meet fans and sign copies of their single Ticket Outta Loserville in the HMV store at The Mall.

Spaces are limited and entrance will be via wristband only - wristbands (maximum two per customer) will be available from the HMV store at The Mall from 10am onwards on the day (while stocks last, subject to availability, at The Mall HMV store only). from their latest album and do a signing in HMV at The Mall later in the evening. and, last but not least, Father Christmas will make an appearance, abseiling down the front of The Mall to switch on the Christmas Lights at around 6.50pm.

-ends-

For further information, please contact:

Sue Boor at The Mall on 0117 915 5555

Or

Sarah King, PR for The Mall, on 0117 983 3628