CHRISTMAS JOBS FAIR AT THE MALL

Stores at The Mall are looking to recruit additional staff at a Jobs Fair to be held in the Food Court on the upper level of The Mall on Friday 23rd (10am – 9pm) and Saturday 24th September (9am – 7pm).

John Lewis, Marks & Spencer, Next, Bhs, Boots, Pizza Hut, Monsoon/Accessorise, WHSmith, Dixons, Virgin Megastores and new womenswear retailer Mandolin are just some of the stores who are looking to find new staff to help them over the traditionally busy Christmas season.

The variety of positions includes full-time and part-time sales advisers, catering staff and warehouse operatives, with shifts for mornings, afternoons, evenings, overnight and weekends too.

Sue Boor of The Mall says: "There is always a great amount of interest in our vacancies - we receive 3,000 requests a month for our current vacancies list. We therefore hope to be busy and would be particularly pleased to see those who left school recently and would enjoy a career in the retail industry.

"Whether you're looking for a permanent job or something part-time to earn some extra spending money, we're sure to have something to suit. And some stores will be doing on the spot interviews so you could actually walk away with a job offer!"

Anyone interested in finding out more about any of the available positions before the Jobs Fair can contact The Mall on 0117 915 5555 or online at www.mallcribbs.com.
