

Lesley Garrett To Perform From Her New Album At The Mall

Britain's most popular soprano Lesley Garrett will thrill her many local fans when she performs live at The Mall at Cribbs Causeway later this month. She will sing twice at 6.30pm and 8.30pm on Monday 17th November, the day The Mall extends its weekday opening hours by another hour until 10pm.

The diva, who regularly appears in both opera and in concert, on television and CD, has chosen The Mall to launch her new album in the West Country. The album So Deep Is The Night is released nationally today, 3rd November.

She will sing a selection of tracks from the album at 6.30pm and again at 8.30pm. In between she will sign copies of her album at HMV.

Through her critically-acclaimed performances, popular CDs and TV shows, Lesley has successfully brought theatre music of all kinds to a wider British audience. Her innate charisma and stage presence will make her visit to The Mall an unmissable event.

While Lesley is at The Mall, she will also switch on The Mall's Christmas Lights, marking the start of its extended opening hours. For the next five weeks until Tuesday 23rd December, stores at The Mall will stay open an extra hour until 10pm every weekday evening.
